Two Nasser Aides Given Jordan Boot

Diplomats Ousted By Government On Security Charges

AMMAN (U)—The Jordan government today expelled two Egyptian diplomats on security charges. They left by plane for Cairo.

A government announcement said Foreign Minister Samir el Rifai asked the Egyptian embassy in Amman to withdraw its military attaché Maj. Foad Hilal after he tried to enlist a Jordanian in a plot to assassinate "certain official personalities in Amman."

The announcement said the recall of Mohammed Abdul Aziz, consul general in the Jordan sector of Jerusalem, was demanded for "reasons connected with security."

"Misbehavior" Charged

Rifai earlier told a news conference Egypt had been asked to replace its representative on the joint Egyptian-Syrian-Jordanian military command for "misbehavior." Rifai did not go into details.

The Jordanian announcement was made several hours after Egypt's Middle East News Agency published a dispatch in Cairo charging that the Jordanian government "fabricated a plot" aimed at involving Hilal in "planning a conspiracy against the Jordanian government and King Hussein."

The Egyptian dispatch, from Beirut, Lebanon, claimed Hilal had been approached by an emissary—who was not identified—from the Jordanian army chief of staff, Maj. Gen. Habis Majali. The report said Hilal arrested the emissary, obtained a written confession "that Majali sent him to involve Hilal in an alleged conspiracy against Jordan and the monarchy," and handed him over to the Jordanian authorities.

The Jordanian announcement told a different story.

It said Hilal "personally contacted a certain Jordanian citizen and tried to induce him with all sorts of material and moral promises to undertake criminal acts aimed at assassinating certain official personalities in Amman. He also promised to provide him with the necessary weapons to carry out the crime."

The announcement said the Jordanian "immediately contacted Jordanian military authorities and reported what the Egyptian military attaché had asked him to do and handed over the weapons he was provided with to commit the crime."

Relations Strained

Hilal also was accused of "slandering... other persons to commit crimes which would disturb order and security."

Relations between Jordanian King Hussein and Egyptian President Nasser have grown increasingly strained since the young king in April ousted leftist and pro-Egyptian officials who dominated the Jordanian government.

Hussein accused Egyptian propaganda agencies of his enemies, and the Jordanian government radio subsequently charged that the Soviet Union, Egypt and Syria had plotted to dethrone Hussein, King Faisal of Iraq, King Saud of Saudi Arabia and King Idriss of Libya.

British Ruler Seen Visiting U. S. In October

LONDON (U)—The News Chronicle says Queen Elizabeth II and her husband, Prince Philip, will visit the United States for six days in October.

Quoting informed sources, the newspaper's New York correspondent said the royal couple will attend 35th anniversary celebrations at Jamestown, Va., Oct. 16 after going to Canada.

It added they will begin a three-day visit to Washington the next day as guests of President and Mrs. Eisenhower.

Plane Crashes Into Home, 4 Guests At Party Not Hurt

PACOMA, Calif. (U)—A plane hit a house last night, killing the four passengers, but eight persons sharing a birthday dinner in the home were unhurt.

Neighbors in this plane crash-conscious San Fernando Valley suburb of Los Angeles today were calling it "a miracle."

Barry Worth, 30, and his family were finishing hamburgers and corn. A cake with candles was on the table in honor of his mother-in-law's 57th birthday.

Then the rented, single-engine Piper Tri-Pacer plunged down onto the one-story, stucco tract home.

It tore a jagged gash across the roof over the dining and living rooms and wound up in a jumble of wreckage in the patio.

Glass from a shattered picture window showered around the diners, who were only 10 feet from the wreckage, but none of them were even hurt. There was no fire.

Killed were Owen Summers, 33; Henry Harris Smith, 42; Robert F. Petersen, 52; and Terrence Patterson Lockhardt, 33, Chico businessman. They were en route to Santa Monica in a plane piloted by Smith, construction company owner.

Pauling Plans World Appeal For Test Ban

NEW YORK (U)—Dr. Linus Pauling said today he is considering calling the scientists of all nations—Russians included—to join his appeal for an agreement to stop testing nuclear weapons.

"I should like to see the signatures of thousands of Russian scientists, of British and French scientists, of scientists of all the countries of the world, to this appeal," he said in an interview.

Pauling is a Nobel Prize-winning California biochemist.

He announced last week that 2,000 American scientists signed a stop-the-tests appeal that he wrote. It said radioactive elements, put in the air by the explosions, already are damaging human health all over the world. It added:

"As scientists we have knowledge of the dangers involved and therefore a special responsibility to make these dangers known. We deem it imperative that immediate action be taken to effect an international agreement to stop the testing of all nuclear weapons."

Pauling said he is now contemplating ways to enlist the support of scientists everywhere for this appeal.

He leaves tomorrow for a lecture tour in France.

Four Perish In Virginia

DAHLGREN, Va. (U)—Virginia's worst boating accident of the year claimed the lives of two men, a woman and a boy yesterday.

Eleven members of a family fishing expedition were heading for shore in a 20-foot houseboat to escape worsening weather.

The boat was within 200 yards of the beach when Joe Miller, 7, stumbled over a railing and tumbled into eight-foot-deep waters of Machodoc Creek.

In quick succession, the child's father Melvin Miller, 32; Miller's sister Mrs. Pauline Houchins, 35, and her husband Wayne, 40, leaped to the rescue.

All drowned while relatives on the boat, including Miller's wife and their other three children, threw out life preservers.

Storms Rake Florida And Kansas Areas

By The Associated Press

Stormy weather which hit the plains states and in the southeastern section of the country appeared abating today, but more rain fell in most of the area.

At least four persons drowned in the stormy weather which hit wide areas yesterday. Two drowned in a tropical storm that swept across Florida from St. Petersburg on the Gulf of Mexico to the Georgia line.

Some 200 families were evacuated from their homes at Perry, Fla., about 50 miles southeast of Tallahassee, which was hardest hit as the storm cut across the state and headed out to sea near Charleston, S. C. More than 11 inches of rain drenched Perry, a town of 3,000.

Two other persons drowned in Coffeyville, Kan., as a bridge across the flooding Verdigris River collapsed.

Tornadoes and severe thunderstorms struck across broad areas in sections of Kansas, Oklahoma and South Dakota. No casualties were reported.

Victim Of Crash Dies In Hospital

GETTYSBURG, Pa. (U)—A 29-year-old Gettysburg man died at the Community Hospital yesterday of injuries he received Sunday morning when his car collided with a truck on Route 34 some 13 miles north of town.

C. G. Crist, Adams County coroner, identified the victim as Edward E. Shaner. Crist said he succumbed to multiple fractures suffered when his auto crashed into a truck driven by Charles Croft, 63, of Westminster, Md.

Pro-Western Backers Win Lebanon Vote

BEIRUT (U)—Candidates backing Lebanon's pro-Western government today held 15 of 22 Parliament seats decided in the first round of the Little Middle East nation's general election.

At stake was the prestige and life of the first Middle East government to endorse the Eisenhower Doctrine. A government defeat would have been a big boost for President Nasser of Egypt and his leftist, pro-Soviet allies in neighboring Syria.

The Ministry of the Interior announced that government candidates, including Premier Sami Solh, won a sweeping 10 of 11 seats in Beirut.

In southern Lebanon, the other section voting Sunday, government supporters won 5 of 11 contests. Opposition and independent candidates took 3 seats each. The independents are expected to oppose the government on domestic issues but support its foreign policy, including the endorsement of the Eisenhower Doctrine.

The other 44 seats in the newly enlarged 66-seat Parliament will be filled by balloting in central and north Lebanon on the next three Sundays.

Two short but violent clashes broke out in Beirut during the voting.

Selling Wave Hits Market

NEW YORK, June 10 (U)—The stock market was hit by a frantic selling wave today on news that President Eisenhower was stricken with "an upset stomach."

Leading issues lost from 1 to 5 points and the high-speed ticker tape was 41 minutes behind in reporting the transactions.

It was the greatest lag in the ticker tape since Feb. 29, 1935, when Eisenhower announced he would be willing to run for reelection.

Today's sell-off compared with the big break of June 8, 1956, when the President had suffered an attack of ileitis.

Ike Aide Gets Plea By Girard Friends

Move Pressed To Block Jap Trial Of Yank

Fellow Townsmen To See President's Associate Counsel

By FRED S. HOFFMAN

WASHINGTON (U)—Fellow townsmen of William S. Girard carry to the White House today their pleas that the soldier be tried by an American court in the death of a Japanese woman.

A delegation from Ottawa, Ill., Girard's home town, had an appointment to confer with Edward A. McCabe, associate counsel to President Eisenhower. The group hopes to win reversal of an American government decision to allow Girard, a specialist third class, to be tried by a Japanese court.

Heading the delegation, which includes several Ottawa city officials, was Louis, the soldier's older brother.

Mothers Sign Petition

En route to Washington, Louis told newsmen in Chicago yesterday, "My brother is an American citizen and I think he should be tried by an American court."

The soldier's brother, a garage mechanic, said he was carrying a petition signed by more than 6,000 mothers living in the Ottawa area. He said the petition asked an American trial for his brother.

Tonight, Louis Girard and his wife Shirley are scheduled to appear on the ABC television program Press Conference.

William Girard, 21, is charged with fatally shooting Mrs. Naka Sakai last Jan. 30 while she was scavenging for scrap metal on a firing range used by American forces in Japan. Girard has said the shooting was accidental.

The case has generated considerable controversy here and in Japan. Some members of Congress have demanded cancellation or revision of a Japanese-American agreement under which U. S. soldiers may be tried by Japanese courts for offenses committed while off duty.

Opponents of a Japanese trial for Girard contend he was on duty at the time of the shooting incident. They cite his orders to guard American equipment on the firing range. The Japanese argue Girard's orders did not go so far as to allow him to shoot.

Treaty Commitments Cited

In Tokyo, a spokesman for the Japanese Justice Ministry said his country "hopes the United States will stand by its treaty commitments and will not renege on its official decision to let Girard be tried here."

The spokesman noted legal moves by Girard's American lawyers to have him returned to the United States. A hearing is docked in U. S. District Court here tomorrow on an application by Girard's lawyers for an order directing that the soldier be produced in court in Washington.

If such an order is granted, the Japanese spokesman said, nothing will be done to delay Girard's departure for the United States. Girard now is under Army detention at Camp Whittington, about 60 miles from Tokyo.

Deaf Woman, 74, Killed By Train As Sons Watch

LANCASTER, Pa. (U)—Two sons watched helplessly last night as a freight train killed their mother, a deaf woman who couldn't hear the train's repeated warnings.

The victim was 74-year-old Mrs. Annie Bertha Kimmich of Lancaster. Her sons watched in horror from a distance of 50 feet as an 87-car Pennsylvania Railroad freight took her life.

The three were out for a walk near Pequea, a Susquehanna River summer colony near here.

Union Heads Face Quiz In Road Scandal

BULLETIN

WASHINGTON (U)—Frank W. Chapman, 300-pound general treasurer of the Carpenters Union, today invoked the Fifth Amendment in refusing to answer questions about sharing in some $400,000 alleged profits on Indiana road right-of-way land sales.

WASHINGTON (U)—Three top leaders of the Carpenters Union were summoned today to explain a special bank account to a Senate subcommittee investigating the Indiana highway scandal.

The Senate Roads subcommittee issued subpoenas for Maurice A. Hutcheson, international president of the union; Frank M. Chapman, Carpenters vice president and treasurer; and O. William Blaier, a union vice president.

Chairman Gore (D-Tenn.) said investigators found that Chapman and Blaier last year received a total of $120,416 from the State of Indiana for 10 parcels of highway right-of-way land. Gore said this money was deposited in a special bank account in Chapman's name.

Checks from that account, said Gore, were written to Hutcheson, Chapman, Blaier and two former highway officials now under indictment in connection with the Indiana land scandal.

Not Related To Surgery, 1955 Attack

Hagerty Reports Two Specialists Have Been Called

WASHINGTON (U)—President Eisenhower was stricken today with "an upset stomach." The White House called in heart and intestinal medical specialists.

Bringing in the specialists was described as "purely a precautionary measure."

Press secretary James C. Hagerty described Eisenhower's new distress as a stomach upset but said in a statement that there was "no indication that this digestive upset is related in any way to the President's recent operation (for ileitis) or to his heart attack" of Sept. 24, 1955.

Engagements Canceled

Last Saturday was the first anniversary of Eisenhower's ileitis attack, for which he underwent surgery.

Hagerty announced shortly after 10:15 a.m. that Eisenhower's business engagements for the day had been canceled on the recommendation of the White House physician, Maj. Gen. Howard Snyder.

Hagerty also told a news conference that Col. Thomas W. Mattingly, the heart specialist who attended Eisenhower in 1955, has been called in from Walter Reed Army Hospital here as "a purely precautionary step."

He said Maj. Gen. Leonard D. Heaton, the Walter Reed commandant and surgeon who operated on the President just a year ago yesterday, also would come to the White House later in the day.

Hagerty also described that as a precautionary step.

Hagerty called newsmen to his office at 10:15 a.m., and read this statement:

"The President had an upset stomach early this morning, apparently caused by something he ate which disagreed with him."

"Dr. Snyder recommended that the President's engagements be canceled today and that the President remain in bed."

Temperature Normal

"The President's temperature is normal as is his blood pressure. "Electrocardiogram shows no change from the many that have been made since his recent heart attack."

"There is no indication that this digestive upset is related in any way to the President's recent operation (for ileitis) or to his heart attack."

Hagerty told newsmen, in response to questions, that Eisenhower suffered during the night from nausea and that he vomited two or three times.

Responding to other questions, Hagerty said he thought the possibility that ileitis had recurred could be ruled out. Hagerty said Eisenhower's distress this time was in his stomach, rather than in the intestines.

Ileitis is an inflammation at the juncture of the large and small intestines.

The ileitis attack a year ago caused partial blockage of the lower intestines.

Doctors operated early on June 9, 1956, to relieve the obstruction. They said later they had no organs and 11 other men until June 22.

Egyptian Gets Death Penalty

CAIRO (U)—An Egyptian court today sentenced one Egyptian to death for spying for Britain but postponed verdicts on four Britons and 11 other men until June 22.

One court source said postponement of the other verdicts probably meant the court contemplated no other death sentences.

The 16 defendants, along with four other Britons who left the country before their arrests were ordered last August, are accused of spying for Britain to overthrow President Nasser's government.

Dixie Pastor Threatened, Kicked Over K.K.K. Cross

SYLACAUGA, Ala. (U)—The family of a young minister who knocked over a Ku Klux Klan cross faced an ultimatum today—leave town or be bombed.

The Rev. Dan Whitsett yesterday said an unidentified caller warned the wife of the Rev. Newlyn Malony Saturday night that unless the Malonys and Whitsett left town within 10 days, "your house and child will be blown to bits."

Whitsett is pastor and Malony associate pastor of the First Methodist Church here. Whitsett, who has taken a stand for moderation in race relations, said his own kicked over the cross.

Lost Frogman Mystery Revived

Body Wearing Diving Gear Found In Harbor

CHICHESTER, England (U)—The headless, handless body of a man dressed in a frogman's dark rubber suit has been found floating 11 miles from where British frogman Cmdr. Lionel (Buster) Crabbe mysteriously disappeared 13½ months ago.

Experts were attempting today to identify the body, which had long been immersed in water.

A British admiralty spokesman said Crabbe was the only person wearing frogman's diving gear known to be missing in the area.

The body was found yesterday by a fisherman in Chichester Harbor, which adjoins Portsmouth Harbor where the ace World War II frogman disappeared on a mysterious diving operation near a Russian warship.

Tides and currents have often pushed the bodies of drowned persons from Portsmouth to the Chichester area. It was speculated the body came to the surface after the heavy oxygen cylinder which frogmen carry on their back became detached.

Crabbe's mission has never been officially explained. Sir Anthony Eden, then prime minister, was questioned in the House of Commons about whether Crabbe had been spying on the Soviet cruiser Orzhonikidze, which brought Soviet Premier Bulganin and Communist party boss Nikita Khrushchev to Britain in April last year. Eden declined to answer, hinting that a reply might stir up international complications.

Russian seamen on the Orzhonikidze reportedly saw a frogman—presumably Crabbe—on a Russian vessel in Portsmouth Harbor, Russia protested. The British reply expressed regret and said that what Crabbe was doing was "completely unauthorized."

The British Admiralty would say only that Crabbe, 46, was presumed dead after failing to return from a test dive April 19, 1956.

Ike Brother Given Tests In Hospital

Johns Hopkins Head Reported To Have Kidney Infection

BALTIMORE, Md. — Further tests were scheduled today for Dr. Milton S. Eisenhower, Johns Hopkins University president hospitalized with what a preliminary diagnosis showed to be a kidney infection.

A university spokesman said Eisenhower became ill late Saturday and was confined to his bed at home. He was admitted to Johns Hopkins Hospital yesterday with a fever.

Dr. Eisenhower, 57, is the youngest brother of President Eisenhower.

"Uncomfortable but not considered serious" was the way Keith Spaulding, Eisenhower's administrative assistant, described the illness. He said the university president was taken to the hospital where he could receive constant attention and have the benefit of laboratory facilities.

The illness became known yesterday when it was announced on Johns Hopkins "File 7" television program (ABC) that Dr. Eisenhower would be unable to appear because he was ill.

Spaulding said Eisenhower may require as much as a week of rest and treatment before returning to work, which would mean missing his first commencement as Johns Hopkins president.

Dr. Nathan M. Pusey, president of Harvard University, will be the speaker at the commencement scheduled for tomorrow.

Eisenhower assumed his duties as university president Oct. 1, 1956, and was inaugurated last Feb. 22. He previously served as president of Pennsylvania State University and Kansas State College.

Food Poisoning Kills 12 Persons

LA PLATA, Argentina (U.S.) — Food poisoning has killed 12 persons in La Plata. Health authorities are insulating hundreds of others with a sizable percentage of the world's supply of an antitoxin.

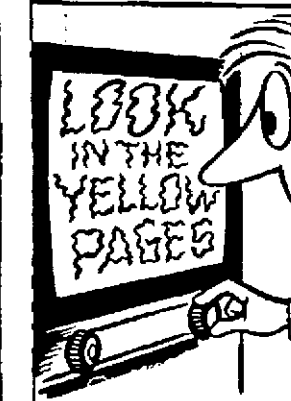

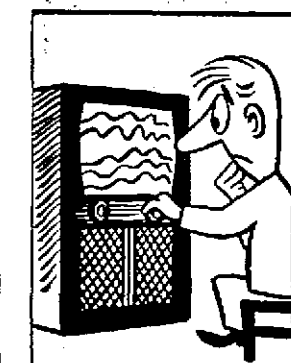

Fifty persons are hospitalized—many of them in iron lungs—as a result of the poisoning attributed to spoiled pinquitos served in a La Plata restaurant.

The poisoning, botulism, is a severe and frequently fatal ailment caused by the action of bacteria on certain foods, often because they are improperly canned or preserved.

ternative, adding that the ailment could have been fatal unless the blockage had been eliminated.

The doctors also said then that the operation, in their opinion, actually probably increased Eisenhower's life span.

The explanation offered for this statement was that a cause for intestinal trouble had been removed.

On the evening before last year's illness attack, Eisenhower had attended a banquet.

Last evening, the President attended ground-breaking ceremonies for construction at American University here, and received an honorary doctor of laws degree.

Giving newsmen a chronological report on the development of the President's latest illness, Hagerty said that when he met Eisenhower last evening to go to American University, the chief executive said he felt he was developing a stomach upset.

"He used the phrase 'stomach upset,'" Hagerty reported.

Eisenhower returned to the White House a little after 10 p.m., and by that time he was in distress.

Dr. Snyder was called and arrived at the White House shortly after 10 p.m. He remained through the night and was still with Eisenhower at midmorning.

Hagerty then went on to say that Mattingly, the Walter Reed heart specialist, came in this morning. Mattingly took an electrocardiogram to check on performance of the President's heart, which was damaged by a "moderate" coronary thrombosis in September, 1955. That attack hospitalized the President and kept him from his White House desk for 3½ months.

Hagerty said Heaton, the physician who performed the ileitis surgery, probably would see Eisenhower later.

Eisenhower, Hagerty reported, was "up and down quite a few times last night" as a result of his illness.

ROME, (U.S.) — Adone Zoli's new Christian Democratic government was reported wavering today in the midst of the most confused political crisis in Italy's postwar history.

Sources close to the courtly, 69-year-old Premier said he had confided to associates he would resign in a few days if a recheck of Friday's parliamentary confidence vote showed his winning majority depended on Fascist support.

Zoli, a staunch anti-Fascist, had said a few hours before the vote he would subtract any Fascist votes from his total.

The amendment? "To correct the spelling of 'accessible.'"

Five Killed, Slayer Ends Life In Car

TORONTO (U.S.) — Police said a 37-year-old electrician killed his wife, parents and two children yesterday because the parents and wife objected to his drinking and way of life.

After the multiple slaying James D. Sinclair rammed his car into a bridge abutment and killed himself. Friends said he was a moderate drinker.

Police said Sinclair apparently got up at 5 a.m. and took a 15-inch pipe from the cellar.

He bludgeoned his sleeping parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Sinclair Sr., his 35-year-old wife Margaret and son Ian, 7. Then he strangled his 2-year-old daughter Joy with a necktie in her crib.

After washing and changing his clothes, Sinclair left in his car. He drove west on Queen Elizabeth Highway half a mile, turned around and headed at high speed into the concrete abutment.

The Bald Boy

Some Hair-Raising Facts For Elmer

By ELMER WHEELER

Certain forms of falling hair can be caused by improper diet (malnutrition) and anyone losing their hair should see a good diet doctor and find this out.

"That was my own doc's advice."

"As for you," he snapped, "you've enough minerals and vitamins cached away in that pot belly and your double chin to nourish six men."

I told him p.k.—no need for more sarcasm. That since I was not losing my hair from lack of minerals and vitamins, then what was the next step to take?

Was it heredity? And how come a guy just entering college often loses his hair before he makes the football team? How come? Inheritance?

He then told me people have no control over their heredity. "You can't pick out your parents," he said.

He told me that if pa and grandpa had no hair, that the chances of you having none are good, although no positive guarantee could be given. He told me that this didn't always work out, but research indicated it might.

I told him my grandpa had a real Daniel Boone head of hair at his death, that my pa also had lots at 72.

"Then you aren't inheriting it," he said, "unless back farther in your life there was a string of bald boys and the strain is catching up to you."

"Then mine may be due to some neglect, need, or ailment?" I asked.

That was some hope.

"Quit diagnosing yourself," he suggested. "Remember a guy who diagnoses his own ailment has a fool for a doctor."

"My grandpa had a real Daniel Boone head of hair."

He went on.

He told me many interesting things, such as: the scalps of redheads had about 90,000 hairs, brunettes about 100,000, and blondes 140,000.

That hair grows about half an inch a month and is only above a short distance beyond the bulb or papilla where it starts from.

That contrary to popular belief, the cutting of the hair does not have any effect on its rapid growth, such as when you cut the lawn.

He told me that deep in the scalp is a bulb like a tiny growth called the papilla. Surrounding the upper part of this bulb or papilla are cells which multiply and form hair.

As the cells continue to multiply and the hair grows, it literally pushes itself out of the skin through a shaft of tunnel in the skin called the follicle.

On the way up the hair passes a lubricating sac known as the sebaceous gland and comes bursting out into the world with a natural sheen.

That is, he advised me, if there are no disorders of the sebaceous gland. "And thus we come to something that may stay your hair from falling."

I tried to pin him down but he stood up and said my five bucks was up for the day, and to come back later on. That I had enough information for the time being.

Young Execs Have Ample Opportunity

CHICAGO (GNS)—A prominent industrialist believes that opportunity for today's young executive was never so good as in the present booming economy.

Louis V. Aronson, H. President of the Renson Cigarette Lighter Corporation of Newark, N. J., defined the idea prevalent in many quarters that grandpappy had a lot better chance of making a million dollars than today's young executive.

Speaking at a Chicago meeting of young executives Aronson listed five reasons for his conclusion. They were:

1. Changes in business, bred by technical and marketing research, create new brands and new businesses.
2. Steady population growth means "more mouths to feed, more bodies to be clothed, more faces to be shaved and more dollars earned and spent."
3. Steady increase in industrial production in the United States and the fact that physical production now stands at three times the average of the 1920's and 1930's.

5. The new profession of "management" offers countless "interrelationships" for able young men, a condition not existing before World War II.

Aronson cautioned young executives, however, that they should not err in believing that all there was to getting ahead as an executive was merely to "start imagining, start planning and start doing something."

He said today's young executive must have proper training, possess a thorough understanding of his industry, be able to collect information for use in rendering sound decisions, continually plan to develop and improve whatever it is he is supervising, have the courage to see a plan through once it is undertaken, evaluate his own worth by what he has achieved in the past.

Overcall Both Sound And Bad

BY OSWALD JACOBY
Written for NEA Service

South's overcall was eminent sound. It also was a horrible bid. Not only was his hand strong enough to warrant a takeout double but he also held a perfect hand for that bid since in addition to his five-card heart suit he was well prepared for spades.

South probably expected to be able to bid spades later on but things did not work out that way. West and North passed and East bid one spade.

This took the spade suit away from South and after West had gone to two diamonds and East passed South decided that he wouldn't sell out at that spot and went to two hearts.

The game was match point duplicate so when it got back to East he put in a match point double which worked out very well indeed.

West opened his singleton spade. East won and gave West a ruff. West led the queen of diamonds. East won that also and gave his partner a second ruff. That made four tricks for the defense and West still had his two club tricks and East his jack of trumps so that the penalty amounted to 500 points and a well-deserved bottom score for North and South.

At all other tables the South player made the correct bid of "double" at his first opportunity. Eventually the hand would play at two or three spades by North or three diamonds by East.

There were no doubles and no big scores as all declarers either made their contracts or went down one trick.

New Convent To Be Built By Dressman

The contract to construct a convent for SS. Peter and Paul Catholic Church has been awarded to Henry Dressman.

The local building contractor submitted the low bid of $193,363 for the three-story structure to be erected on North Smallwood Street, according to Rev. Marius Elsenor, pastor of the church.

Dressman's bid was the lowest of six, all submitted by local contractors, and was $1,100 less than the second bid.

Father Marius said the contract will be signed early this week and that the contractor plans to start work as soon as possible.

No formal ground breaking ceremony is planned.

The announcement of the award was made at masses yesterday morning after the bids were approved by Most Rev. Francis P. Keough, archbishop of Baltimore.

The new convent will be constructed of light colored brick in the Capuchin Monastery garden, on the lower side of the present convent. The Ursuline Sisters who teach in SS. Peter and Paul School and Ursuline Academy will remain in their present quarters until the new convent is built.

Plans prepared by Stickle and Associates, of Cleveland, call for the convent to be L-shaped, fronting 39 feet on North Smallwood Street and extending 110 feet into the garden, with the back 68 feet wide.

The basement floor will contain trunk, recreation and laundry rooms, an enclosed porch facing the garden, rehearsal and practice rooms for the music department of the school and a utility room.

The first floor will include a chapel, sacristy, community room, dining room, kitchen, foyer, two parlors, two visiting rooms and a sewing room.

The second floor will contain 19 bedrooms and an office for the superior.

Attendance At Lutheran Mission Totaled 6,204

Attendance at the Lutheran Evangelism Mission held last week by four area Lutheran churches totaled 6,204, according to Rev. Francis B. Myers, Silver Spring, eastern regional director.

Results of the rally, he said, were excellent, and compare favorably with missions held during the past two years by the United Lutheran Church.

During four days of the week, 192 visitors from St. Paul's, St. John's and St. Luke's congregations here and St. Paul's in Frostburg, made 373 completed calls to homes in the area.

They interviewed 622 persons and received 118 adult commitments expected to lead to church membership.

Of the 118 persons, 76 agreed to attend pastor's instruction classes.

Another 23 said they would transfer membership from other Lutheran congregations and 19

City Firemen Test 500 Feet Of Hose

Last week 500 feet of new fire hose was placed in use by the Cumberland Fire Department after undergoing tests.

The service test, made with a newly acquired hose tester, was conducted by city firemen in charge of Assistant Chief Alvey Poole.

He said each length of the 500 feet of 2 1/2 inch hose was tested under 400 pounds of pressure and held there for two minutes.

All hose used by the department, he said, is tested once a year, usually under about 200 pounds pressure, which is about all it is required to withstand in normal operations.

YMCA Day Camp To Open June 24

Central YMCA Day Camp will be held at the Y and the Ali Ghan Shrine Country Club beginning June 24.

Plans are being completed by B. U. Smith, general secretary, who said the program will be open to boys and girls from seven to 12 years of age.

Central YMCA facilities will offer swimming, swimming instruction, movies, rainy day programs and gymnasium activities.

The Shrine Club site will enable the youngsters to enjoy making craft articles, softball, group games, scavenger and treasure hunts. Lunches will be eaten at the site.

The new day camp will be conducted five days each week. Transportation for boys and girls in Frostburg and LaVale will be arranged if there are enough registrants from those areas.

We use our phone as our bargain shopper

I'm a mother with three small children who are too young to be left alone. As a result, I can hardly ever find the time to go to a sale in person.

So I've made my phone my bargain shopper. And does it save me money!

Last month, for instance, I saved over $60 on a TV set. They were on sale but, as usual, I didn't have the time to go to the sale. I phoned the store and explained my situation. They were nice enough to send one out on trial, which we liked and bought.

We also use our phone to hunt for bargains, such as one-day sales on play clothes for the kids, gardening needs, many things a growing family uses.

Our telephone bargain-hunting savings are often small. But we believe they add up to enough so that our phone pays for itself—and we know our phone gives us more time to live our lives as we like.

Mary Haworth's Mail

Editor's Note: Alcoholics' unhappy wife is advised to affiliate with Al-Anon family group.

DEAR MARY HAWORTH: Recently I read in your wonderful column a desperate appeal for redemptive help from the wife of an alcoholic. Because you are in a position to reach thousands of such women, I am asking you to direct them to the Al-Anon Family Group Headquarters, Inc., Post Office Box 1475, Grand Central Annex, New York 17, N. Y.

This self-help group, as you may know, was founded by wives of members of Alcoholics Anonymous—to help just such despairing persons to rebuild their own lives and, with God's help, to learn how to live in peace and serenity, whether or not the partner's drinking problem was solved.

The beauty of this organization is that one lone woman, in any community, may join the central group. However, at the rate the Al-Anon and A-A groups are growing at the local level, there soon won't be many places where one is a lone member.

Dread Suspense Is Destructive

The alcoholic's wife, after years of shrinking within her shell, and pretending nothing is wrong, finds indescribable release and relief in getting together with a group that has the common problem.

The personality changes (for the worse) in the alcoholic's spouse are as much in need of correcting, after years of dread and suspense, as are those of the drinker.

Surely many women will profit by knowing that understanding, lovingly wasted energies are directed into constructive thought and action.

Law Against 'Switchblades' To Be Enforced

The enforcement of a new Maryland law prohibiting the sale of switchblade knives will be stressed in the future, according to Paul M. Fletcher, state's attorney.

Fletcher said the new law went into effect June 1, as provided in Chapter 534 of the Acts of the 1957 Assembly.

It provides that it shall be unlawful for any person, firm or corporation to sell, barter, display or offer to sell any knife having a blade which opens automatically by hand pressure applied to a button, spring or other device and commonly known as "switchblade knives" or any switchblade penknife operating in a similar manner.

The law provides penalties of from $50 to $500 and/or imprisonment for not more than 12 months.

Fletcher said the law will be strictly enforced by the sheriff's and the state's attorney's offices in the county.

The City of Cumberland, he added, recently passed a switchblade knife ordinance and is determined to enforce it.

Fire Truck Hits Building

Cumberland's big hook and ladder fire truck was damaged last night when the vehicle collided with an automobile and then careened into the front of the Eagles Building on North Mechanic Street.

The front of the 85-foot hook and ladder was smashed by the crash. The front bumper, radiator and grille and right front fender, were damaged. The vehicle was towed from the scene.

The automobile, driven by Leonard Mattingly, 30, of 302½ Franklin Street, had only slight damage to the left rear fender and tail light, and there was no damage to the brick building.

Robert Smith, 34, of 119 Weber Street, chauffeur of the big fire truck, said the vehicle skidded on the wet street as it rounded the corner of Bedford Street onto North Mechanic Street, glanced off the rear of Mattingly's automobile and crashed full into the corner of an entrance to the building.

Smith and Assistant Fire Chief Vincent H. Wegman, 519 Foster Avenue, who was riding in the front seat of the truck, were unhurt. Tillerman George C. Lease, 32, of 140 Independence Street, riding in the rear of the hook and ladder section, suffered a skinned right knee and was slightly shaken up. He was treated at Sacred Heart Hospital and was released. He will return for X-rays of the injured knee today.

Officer Clarence Valentine said the fire engine driver explained the truck skidded on the street, made wet by water spilling from the pump engine which had preceded the hook and ladder truck to the alarm.

Mattingly said he stopped his car on the right side of Mechanic Street in front of the Eagles' home when he heard the siren of the fire engine. The pump engine passed him seconds before his car was struck by the hook and ladder truck.

Traffic was delayed for a short time as officials worked to clear the truck from the street, moving the vehicle within 15 minutes after the crash.

Firemen on the pump engine extinguished the fire, which was a smoldering blaze in the awning in front of the Wilson Hardware Company store on North Mechanic Street about a half-block from the scene of the accident.

Stranger Needs A Lexicon In Balamer And Chollston

By ROBERT McHUGH

CHARLESTON, S. C. (AP)—A "coined" (kind hearted) Charlestonian, who realizes that pure English is spoken only in this holy city by the sea, has compiled a dictionary for those who have not yet grasped this simple fact.

He has a counterpart in Baltimore equally generous who no later than tomorrow.

Frank Gilbreth, who writes for the Charleston News and Courier under the name of Ashley Coopers, should introduce one of his friends to a genuine user of Baltimore as known to John Goodspeed, Evening Sun columnist.

A glance at their two lexicons proves beyond dispute that such a meeting could produce the grammatical collision of the century.

Imagine a conversation between a man who says "wretched" for Richard (Charleston) and one who says "rayon" for round (Baltimore).

Pure Charleston

Gilbreth lists these examples of pure Charleston talk:

Abode (wooden plank), ain't (sister of one of your parents), bottle (a military engagement), caught (a little bed), Des Moines (they belong to me), famine (tilling the soil), frustrate (top ranking), layman (a fruit from which layman-ade is made).

Other wondrous sounds also are defined for the unlettered.

Goodspeed, who collects genuine Baltimore (pronounced Balamer) speech in his "Mr. Peep" column, lists:

As (ask), boy (buoy), buoy (boy), gun (gone), leguminal (legitimate), padder (powder), strength (strengthen), woder (water). Other listings are equally enlightening.

Let's suppose that the Charlestonian—Wretched—exchanged a few words with the man from Baltimore—Dawn (Don). The talk might go something like this:

DAWN: Come on to Balamer where you can get leguminal crab soup for practically nothing, corshers by the peck from the wooders of the Chesapeake Bay and see Big-Lig baseball. You people live all your life without seein' the best city in Murka, and yet it's only a few hummer molts from here.

Negative Vote Of Eves Halts Trailer Action

Ordinance To Ban Trailers Provides Fine Of $10 Daily

A negative vote by Mayor Roy W. Eves today delayed passage for one week of an ordinance to prohibit use of house trailers as dwellings within the city limits.

The ordinance, read at this morning's meeting of the Mayor and Council, said that violation of its provisions would result in a fine of $10 and each day in which a trailer is in violation of the ordinance would be considered a separate offense.

Finance Commissioner John J. Long raised the point of investigating the possibility of a city-owned tract of land, or "motor court", which would provide a site for trailers and be a possible source of revenue. It was pointed out such a proposal had been suggested before and one contact made concerning a site. But the owner had indicated he was not interested in developing the land as a trailer court.

Questions Tax Status
City Auditor Arthur B. Gibson raised the question about trailers placed on a permanent foundation and their status under tax ordinances. City Attorney Thomas B. Finnan pointed out that assessments are the responsibility of the county. He said the apparent real problem is not taxation but the fact that in some areas where trailers move in, other permanent properties are devalued. This occurs even though some trailers are very lavish, he added.

Street Commissioner William H. Buchholz said he believed the city should discourage trailers and "encourage home building."

He said when the new Thruway is completed, the city will have lost considerable property on the tax books which should be replaced as quickly as possible. He said he agreed there are other considerations, but the taxable property problem is the most important now.

Long said one way to encourage building is to keep the tax rate at a livable rate and to investigate possible other sources of revenue.

Finnan emphasized that the city has had no great demand for trailer sites. He said, in fact, that there were only four requests in the past five months.

Buchholz said if any property is available for developing a trailer court, "the city should possibly look into it."

Grant Tax Exemption
On several other matters, council granted a tax exemption on personal property to the Cumberland Undergarment Company for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1957. It was pointed out the exemption has been granted since 1946 and this is the last under a 10-year agreement. Finnan pointed out, however, that council could continue to grant the exemption on a year-to-year basis.

Confirmed was a cost report by city engineer Charles R. Nuzum on the curbing, guttering or otherwise improving Massachusetts Avenue from Grant to Church streets. Total cost was $6,182 of which $5,000 will be paid by property owners at $5 a linear foot.

Council accepted the bid of John S. Cook and Son for $4,000 to install 5,000 square feet of sidewalk on Massachusetts Avenue.

Trinity Lutheran School Planned
Trinity Lutheran Church will hold its annual vacation Bible school, June 17-28, with classes scheduled from 9:30 to 11:45 a. m. daily, Monday through Friday.

The theme of the school will be "Our Beautiful Saviour," and classes will be held for children from four through 15 years of age. The school will be under the general direction of Mrs. Albert Kiffner and Mrs. Albert Fauss.

Instructors will include Mrs. Kiffner, Mrs. Raymond Lepley, and Miss Carol Joy, nursery and beginners; Mrs. Daniel McKenzie, Mrs. George Spearman and Miss Donna Haines, primary; Mrs. Harold Knippenberg, Mrs. Lester Warnick and Mrs. Paul Keller, juniors; Mrs. Fauss, seniors.

Registration will be conducted by Miss Donna Stewart and Miss Kathleen Kiffner, and Mrs. Harold Dreyer will be in charge of refreshments.

Fire Truck Ready For Emergency Duty
Central Fire Station's 83-foot hook and ladder truck, damaged yesterday when it collided with an automobile and then hit the front of the Eagles Home on North Mechanic Street, is ready for emergency service, Fire Chief Virgil A. Parker said today.

Parker said damage to the truck is not too extensive. The factory representative is due here this afternoon. The truck's front bumper, radiator and grill were demolished, the right fender dented and the motor slightly damaged.

Area Women To Get Short Course Pins
Pins will be presented to 15 women from Allegany county at the Rural Women's Short Course at the University of Maryland on June 21, according to Miss Mary P. Wise, county home demonstration agent.

The group scheduled to receive pins for eight years attendance includes Mrs. Edna M. White and Mrs. Mary S. Flora, city; Mrs. Agnes M. Rice, Flintstone; Mrs. Lenora Agnes Smith, Westernport; Mrs. Harriett B. Griffith, Frostburg; Mrs. Russell O. Durst, Mrs. Clement T. Stakem and Mrs. Penny Thrasher, Midland; Mrs. Louis Haus and Mrs. Howard L. Huff, Mt. Savage, and Mrs. Eva Stevens, East Liverpool, Ohio.

Pins for four years attendance will be presented to Mrs. Ralph Brumarkle, city; Mrs. Harry E. Miller, Frostburg; Mrs. Wesley H. Sleeman, Mt. Savage, and Mrs. John Haus, Oldtown.

Mrs. Allen Baker, Grantsville, will receive a pin for attending the course eight years.

The course will open next Monday with registration and a tour of the university campus. A reception will be given the class on June 18 by President and Mrs. Wilson H. Elkins.

On June 19 the class will go on sightseeing tours to Mt. Vernon and historic places in Washington. That evening the Potomac English Handbell Ringers will present a performance for the class.

June 20 a style show will be held and folk games played. Movies will also be shown.

June 21 will be visitors' day and a tea will be held on the Mall, sponsored by the Maryland State Council of Homemakers Clubs.

The Mayor and Council today authorized Mayor Roy W. Eves to execute options and deeds in favor of the federal government in connection with land obtained by the city for flood control purposes.

The four orders, involving 48 areas within the city and Ridgeley, will become effective upon payment by the government to the city of a total of $1,633.

City Attorney Thomas B. Finnan explained the tracts are "mostly in Wills Creek," which led Commissioner William H. Buchholz to observe "In other words, we are deeding Wills Creek to the government."

Under existing flood control agreements, the city is responsible for maintaining the areas in question.

City, Bankers To Air Finances
The Mayor and Council and officials of five local banks will meet tomorrow at 11 a. m. in the office of Mayor Roy W. Eves.

The meeting was asked by Finance Commissioner John J. Long to study the city's financial situation.

Area Motorists Fined $477 On Violations

Magistrate Mason noted that three of the drivers were convicted of driving while under the influence and were fined a total of $353.

Ice cream, no matter how often it's served, remains America's favorite dessert.

So it was with the colorful Jake Mintz who died Saturday in Pittsburgh of a heart ailment. Mintz was a popular speaker on the banquet circuit and even though he told many of his stories over and over, he never ceased to be entertaining.

The little fast-talking boxing promoter was brought to Cumberland a number of times by Al Abrams for Dapper Dan sports dinners and was always a hit. He split more intimacies than lips of opposing boxers during his brief career as a fighter and coined more expressions than money, although he did more than all right for himself financially after lifting Ezard Charles to the world's heavyweight championship.

No college ever thought of conferring an honorary degree on Jake. He made "Mintz meat" of the English language with his malapropisms, but probably many of them were invented to make people laugh.

On the occasion of dinners when speakers became too serious and their talks proved boring and lengthy, Mintz and his expressions came as a welcome relief and often "saved the day." Several years ago during one of his appearances here, Jake was describing a surgical operation. "At first they thought I had 'golf' stones," he said. "Then they took an 'autograph' of my heart and later found out that I had 'ulsters'."

Jake also got a kick out of kidding Mayor Roy Eves. He sat beside "hizzoner" at the dinner and when Mintz's turn came to speak he said the mayor told him he was in the lumber business. "But the mayor recently had all of his teeth extracted and has trouble getting out words. I thought he said he was in the 'number' business."

It was at same dinner Mintz, in referring to the invocation by a local minister, called it the "nroccation."

Some of his other favorite expressions included: "Colossal" for colossal, "noon day plum" for non de plume, "delour" for four and "daze" for day.

Abrams, veteran sports editor of the Pittsburgh Post-Gazette, probably heard more of Mintz's speeches than any other person. But like hundreds of others, he never tired of them. And by the same token, Jake furnished Abrams with much humor for his widely-read column.

When Mintz, who was born in Fairmont, W. Va., learned a few years ago that he had a heart condition, he told Abrams in his picturesque mangled English: "When you write my 'bitutory' put something in there that will leave them laughing."

But his death came as a shock to Abrams, a genuine friend, who today wrote: "Much as I would like to make good his final request, I am not up to it. One can't just at the time of the death of a friend."

Mintz told Abrams several days before his death that he is only living to see Wilf Greaves, his latest protégé, the middleweight champion.

This was not to be for Jake. b t Abrams says wherever he is, I'll bet he's saying to whoever will listen:

"What ya goin' to do? In this game you gotta take the bitter with the sour!"

"Smitty" Gets Degree

Earl Smith, the former little amateur boxer with a big heart and an even bigger following, realized one of his ambitions the other day when he received his degree at George Washington University commencement exercises.

But the popular "Smitty," who always hated to lose in the ring — and seldom did, isn't finished studying yet. He plans to work this summer and go back to GW next year to start on his master's degree.

Earl majored in foreign service and hopes to go to Japan after completing his education. While stationed in Japan during the Korean War, he picked up a working knowledge of the Japanese language.

Earl's most ardent ringside rooster during his fistic career is also working on his degree at GW. He is brother Bob who is assistant manager of the International Insurance Underwriters in Washington and going to night school.

Bob, who played baseball and basketball here, was graduated from LaSalle in 1950. Earl got his diploma at LaSalle in 1948.

Redlegs Again Calling Tune In National League

But Chisox Whistling 'The Blues' In American

By TONY GALLI

NEW YORK (INS)—The Redlegs are calling the tune again in the National League and the White Sox are whistling the American League blues.

That's the way the pennant races shaped up today after a busy Sunday schedule of 15 major league games which saw Cincinnati, dislodged for one day, storm back into first place with a doubleheader sweep of Brooklyn.

Chicago's White Sox stunned by Baltimore in both games to have their lead cut back to 4½ games over New York.

The Yankees beat Detroit in a bizarre game which included a known-pitcher fist fight, the attempted steal of second with the bags loaded and a goofy peg to the wrong base.

Three players injured at Chicago, including a skull fracture received by Baltimore third baseman George Kell.

Hank Aaron taking over the major league home run derby lead from Mickey Mantle with shots No. 14 and 15, and other two-homer performances by Don Hoak, Jimmy Piersall, Vic Wertz and Roger Maris.

Brooks, Phils Tied The Dodgers, who only Saturday made the top of the pile for the first time this year, lost to Cincinnati, 3 to 1 and 3 to 0, and wound up in a second-place tie with Philadelphia, 1½ games behind the Redlegs.

The Chicago Cubs defeated the Phils, 7 to 3, and were deprived of a clean sweep when the second game was halted in the 10th inning by the Pennsylvania curfew law.

St. Louis surged to within 3½ games of first place by sweeping a doubleheader with the New York Giants, 2 to 1 and 10 to 7.

And Milwaukee was 2½ games out on the basis of a split at Pittsburgh, the Braves dropping the nightcap, 5 to 3, after taking the 11-inning opener, 2 to 1.

The Orioles dumped Chicago, 7 to 5 and 5 to 0, as New York beat the Tigers, 5 to 4. Boston swept Kansas City, 8 to 4 and 3 to 5, and Cleveland split with Washington by first winning, 7 to 2 and then losing, 7 to 6.

The Dodgers were embarrassed by former Brooklyn third baseman Don Hoak before the largest Ebbets Field crowd of the year, an overflowing 33,850. Hoak beat Don Drysdale in the opener with a two-run homer and brought in two more runs in the second with another homer and a sacrifice fly. Brooks Lawrence won the first game and Hal Jecout, making his first major league start after 96 relief appearances, pitched the six-hit shutout.

Birds Get 21 Hits The Orioles piled up 21 hits against the White Sox, including first-game homers by Tito Francona, who later broke the index finger of his left hand, and Bob Niekman. George Zverink posted his sixth win in eight decisions at the expense of Bob Keegan and bonus pitcher Bill O'Dell.

Shut out Dick Donovan in the second game, O'Dell scattered six hits and struck out 11. Kell was beamed by Donovan and suffered a hairline skull fracture and outfielder Jim Landis joined a Chisox injury list which already included Larry Doby and quest, I am not up to it. One can't just at the time of the death of a friend."

Mintz told Abrams several days before his death that he is only living to see Wilf Greaves, his latest protégé, the middleweight champion.

Churchill's Filly Named For Selma

LAUREL, Md., (AP)—Sir Winston Churchill has nominated a filly for next year's Selma Stakes.

The yearling still to be named is among 588 made eligible for the mile and sixteenth race for 2-year-old fillies. The gross prizes will be about $70,000 for the event to be held in November of 1958.

Churchill's silks first appeared in the United States at Laurel last year in the International, a grass race worth $100,000. The statesman's Le Pretendant was a disappointing 10th and last.

Besides Churchill's yearling, potential extension of international flavor to the 1958 Selma is offered in nomination of an Irish yearling.

Mrs. Nora Clarke of Dunderry, Stud in County Meath also has nominated a yearling.

Churchill's bay filly is the daughter of Galador, winner of the 1950 Epsom Derby. Mrs. Clarke's brown filly, also still to be given a name, is the daughter of Tulyar, highly prized Irish stallion now standing stud in Kentucky.

The Selma is named for one of the greatest mares of colonial times. Selma was brought to the United States from England in 1759 and sent to the famous Belair breeding farm near Laurel.

The late William Woodward became owner of the farm and offered a trophy for a race named in honor of the famous Selma in 1926. The Belair breeding farm is in the process of being sold again after the accidental death of Woodward's son last year.

The senior Woodward's estate continues to provide the Selma trophy.

LaVene won the best-nine tournament yesterday by posting a net 36-60. Rain on Saturday and yesterday's match between the CCC and Lakeview teams at Morgantown, W. Va., reduced the number of entries to nine players.

Those winning special awards on par three holes were: Nos. 1 and 10—LaVene, No. 6—John Creagan, No. 13—Clifton Van Reby.

The National Golf Day program was rained out Saturday and is rescheduled for Saturday, June 15.

Growing Feud Erupts, Boone Defies Yanks

DETROIT (INS)—A growing feud between New York and Detroit erupted into a fist-slinging brawl yesterday when Tiger Ray Boone was almost beamed by a pitched ball and went forth to get his man, Yankee hurler Bob Sturdivant.

The fight started in the third inning as 41,189 fans watched Detroit erupt into a fist-slinging brawl yesterday when Tiger Ray Boone was almost beamed by a pitched ball and went forth to get his man, Yankee hurler Bob Sturdivant.

The fight started in the third inning as 41,189 fans watched Detroit erupt into a fist-slinging brawl yesterday when Tiger Ray Boone was almost beamed by a pitched ball and went forth to get his man, Yankee hurler Bob Sturdivant.

Sturdivant had just been tagged for two home runs by Frank Bolling and Charlie Maxwell when first baseman Boone came to bat and almost lost his head in ducking an inside pitch.

"They can throw at my legs and dust me off, but no one can throw at my head," commented Boone, who tossed down his bat and stalked toward the mound to do battle fist-wise.

Sturdivant met him halfway, a fight began, the benches emptied and the two principal combatants were ejected from the game.

The Yankee pitcher denied he was after Boone's head and said the pitch was "a fast ball that just got away from me."

He also denied moving toward the plate to meet the infuriated Tiger, saying instead, that he was going after the ball which glanced off Boone's bat and rolled toward third base on the line.

Sturdivant said: "I thought it was fair. I ran off the mound to field it, not to fight with Boone."

Boone made no pretext about his intentions: "I went out to get him. This one was at my head."

'Cat's' Kitten 'Purrs,' Birds Baffle Chisox

CHICAGO (AP)—Remember Harry (The Cat) Brecheen, former St. Louis Cardinal southpaw who tied National League hitters in knots a decade ago?

The Chicago White Sox do after watching Billy (Digger) O'Dell of Baltimore chop up their American League lead yesterday.

O'Dell, a 24-year-old student of the Cal, now Baltimore's pitching coach, blanked the Sox 5-0 yesterday after the Orioles had whipped Chicago 7-5 in the first game of a doubleheader. Chicago's lead over the second-place New York Yankees was cut to 4½ games.

Brecheen, who won three World Series victories over the Boston Red Sox in 1946 while hurling for the Cardinals, is simply crazy over "this kid." He has been tutoring O'Dell and predicts "he'll be one of the best pitchers in this league as soon as he develops a change of pace."

O'Dell, making his first start of the season, limited the Sox to 6 hits, walked 2 and struck out 11. "I wasn't worried," he said later, "because I kept getting stronger as the game wore on."

"Sure, I've copied Brecheen's style. What's wrong with that? He and Paul Richards (Baltimore manager) taught me everything I know. I never dreamed I could throw a fast ball until they got hold of me."

Kell And Francona Lost Indefinitely

CHICAGO, (AP)—Veteran third baseman George Kell and outfielder Tito Francona will be lost to the Baltimore Orioles indefinitely following injuries suffered in yesterday's 7-5 and 5-0 triumph over the Chicago White Sox.

Kell was hit in the head by a pitch thrown by Dick Donovan of the Sox in the second inning of the second game. He was taken to Mercy Hospital where White Sox team physician, Dr. John Claridge said Kell suffered a possible hairline fracture on the upper right side of his forehead.

Kell, 34, who has been in the American League since 1943, was to be held at the hospital 48 hours for observation.

Francona, 32, suffered a fracture of the index finger of the left hand when he attempted a shoe string catch of Nelson Fox line drive in the second inning of the nightcap. Francona was treated and released.

Score Returns For Eye Exam

BAITIMORE, (AP)—Indian pitcher Herb Score was en route back to Cleveland today for another examination of his right eye injured by a line drive May 27.

Making his first public appearance since he was hurt, Score was interviewed briefly last night on a network television show (CBS, "Toast of the Town").

Score said he had a tentative date for tomorrow with Dr. Charles L. Thomas, Cleveland eye specialist. He will rejoin the Indians if the doctor approves, he said, but doubts that Dr. Thomas will approve at this stage of recovery.

The brilliant southpaw, who turned 24 last Friday, has been recuperating at the Hagerstown, Md., home of an uncle, A. F. Flood.

At the Baltimore (WMAR-TV) studio, Score told a newsman two feet away he could make out his features "and two weeks ago I wouldn't have been able to do that at all. I'm satisfied I'm on the mend."

Retton, Kuhn Grab Honors In Conference

RICHMOND, Va. (AP) — West Virginia's Ronnie Retton, a pint-sized 5-7 shortstop with a big bat, led the Southern Conference in batting during the 1957 baseball season, official statistics showed today.

Retton, a sophomore from Fairview, W. Va., hit .417 to finish ahead of William and Mary's Doug Henley, who posted a .406 average.

A two-sports star who also plays basketball, Retton captured most of the league's hitting honors. He led in hits with 30, in runs scored with 23, in triples with 4 and tied Virginia Tech's Jim Steele in stolen base leadership with 8.

William and Mary's Junior Duff captured most of the other batting titles. The power-hitting outfielder smacked 6 home runs and tied George Washington's Sam Kniskney for the runs-batted-in lead with 20. VMI's Chuck McLennan and George Washington's Roy Looney each had six doubles, tops in the conference.

Behind Retton and Henley in the batting race were The Citadel's Dick Guereci, .378; West Virginia's Bob Senay, .356; and The Citadel's Bill Marsh, .349.

Among the pitchers appearing in sufficient number of innings, Hagerstown, Md., was the league's most effective hurler with a 1.45 earned run average. West Virginia's Buck Bolyard and VMI's Tina Maier shared the runner-up spot with 2.20 ERA marks.

The winningest pitchers were Richmond's Carl Carnes and Furman's Charlie Moore, each capturing seven decisions. Carnes was the workhorse of the league, pitching 50 innings and permitting the most hits, 80. George Washington's Jack Arthur led in strikeouts with 60, two more than his teammate, George Bickerton, and Washington and Lee's Joe Kuakal.

Rain postponed all but one game in the Pen-Mar Baseball League yesterday but in the longest played, Hyndman shot its lead to 1 1/2 games by whipping Flintstone, 10-4, on the winners' diamond.

The triumph was the ninth in 10 attempts for the Merchants while the Farmers dropped their 10th without a victory.

The washed out tilt will be played Saturday, June 22, with St. Mary's at Centerville, Zihlman at Barreville and Wellersburg being host to Grantsville.

Hyndman got to work early yesterday by shoving over seven tallies in the first three innings. The Merchants added their final three in the seventh, Flintstone got two in the third and singletons in the fourth and eighth.

Glenn Evans chalked up his second straight triumph for Hyndman while spacing six hits and whiffing four. "Lefty" Bill Hagerlin dropped his sixth without a triumph for the Farmers. He struck out five and was touched for 11 hits.

Bob Cook led the winners at the plate with a homer in the second and two singles. Bob Bryant came up with a double and single while Cliff Clites collected a pair of one-baggers.

Louise Suggs 'Gal To Beat' In PGA Final

PITTSBURGH, (AP) — Three girls who missed big chances to wrap up one of the most coveted titles in women's golf set out to decide it today in the final round of the ladies PGA championship. And if you have to pick a winner among them, the name of Louise Suggs probably would come out first.

The reason is experience. Wiff Smith, 20 years old and a golf pro for only about six months, led the way into the final round with a score of 214 strokes to 217 for Miss Suggs and tiny Marlene Bauer Hagge, the defending champion.

But Wiff faltered at the crucial point of the third round yesterday — on the last five holes where her closest rivals also were having trouble. So, instead of having the championship in her pocket, Wiff still was in a contest.

Miss Suggs, a wiry 33-year-old girl, has been on the pro golf circuit since 1948. She has won almost everything in sight at one time or another and isn't likely to be afflicted by tension in a showdown.

Mrs. Hagge, who won the PGA title at Detroit last year and showed she can master the short Churchill Valley course by winning an open tournament here in 1956, also has had plenty of experience. But Marlene also ran into difficulties on the last five tricky holes yesterday.

Wiff, needing only to protect a comfortable lead, made her big mistake at the 356-yard 17th. She tried to hook an approach shot to the green, hit a tree and wound up with a double bogey six and a score of 73. Marlene, burning up the front nine with a two-under-par 31, struck a spell of wild shooting, landed in a creek once and bogeyed four of the last five holes.

Louise shot 5-3-4-5, two over par, on the last four holes, and that cost her a chance to gain.

Local Netmen Lose Windy Opener, 9-0

The Uniontown tennis team and a 35-mile an hour wind blew the Cumberland entry in the tri-State Tennis league off the courts yesterday as the Pennsylvanians registered a 9-0 victory in the first match of the season.

Originally scheduled for the Garlitz courts on Williams Road, the match was switched to Uniontown after Saturday's heavy rain made the local courts unplayable.

The steady, blasting wind was a major factor in manufacturing breaks in the matches although all were closely contested and well-played.

Highlight of the day, however, was a three-hour struggle between Cumberland's Harold Brown and Al Springer. Springer won a marathon 6-2, 6-8, 12-10.

The locals are idle next week as Keyser travels to Uniontown. On June 23, Cumberland will be at Keyser.

Yesterday's summary:
Joe Krook defeated Bill Day, 6-3, 6-4.
Ricky Jenkins won over Johnny Byrd, 6-4, 2-6, 6-4.
S. Caldru downed John (Boots) Sapp, 6-3, 6-4.
Springer defeated Brown, 6-2, 6-8, 12-10.
Chuck Taylor won over Don Hanekamp, 7-5, 6-0.
Allen Welch triumphed over Jimmy Twigg, 7-5, 6-0.

Doubles
Krook and Jenkins won over Day and Byrd, 6-4, 6-4.
Caldru and Taylor whipped Hanekamp and Twigg, 6-2, 6-0.
Welsh and Springer defeated Walter Thomas and Bill Sitter, 6-2, 6-4.

Golfers Complain About Tightening Inverness Course

TOLEDO, Ohio (AP) — After one look, the golf pros are yelling "bloody murder" over the tightened Inverness Club course, scene of the National Open tournament starting Thursday.

"I don't know what they're trying to prove," groaned Sam Snead, one of the top favorites. "This is nothing like the course we used to play on in the four-ball tournaments. They're making golf drudgery instead of fun."

Jimmy Demaret, a three-time Masters champion who like Snead has never won the Open, said, "It's utterly ridiculous the way some of these holes are laid out. I predict on Sunday we'll be paying homage to another fluke champion."

Julius Boros, Vic Ghezzi, Cary Middlecoff and Peter Thomson were others to voice mild protests over the gun-barrel fairways, tenacious rough and lightning fast greens.

The Inverness Club, where a 43-year-old Scotchman, Ted Ray, won in 1920 and Billy Burke triumphed in 1931 after a record 72-hole playoff with George Von Elm, measures 6,919 yards and plays a par 34-41-70.

Main objections were to the par five 12th hole, measuring 527 yards. The fairway undulates 250 yards from the tee, giving the long driver a sidehill lie. A ditch crosses the fairway 150 yards farther on and then there is about 60 yards of high grass fronting an elevated well-trapped green.

Sime Paces ACL Hitters

GREENSBORO, N. C. (AP) — Duke's Dave Sime, who gained fame as a sprint star, won the Atlantic Coast Conference baseball batting title this season, official figures from the conference Service Bureau revealed today.

The 6-3, 190-pound star from Fair Lawn, N. J., batted a lusty .376 to nose out teammate Lon Bonczek, shortstop for the conference champions, who had an official .370.

The figures include Duke's five games the Blue Devils played in the District 3 NCAA playoffs. Before the playoffs, Bonczek's average was .397. He had a miserable two days there, however.

The conference's top pitcher was Bill Lovingsood of Wake Forest, who wound up with a perfect 4-0 record. He also led the league's pitchers with an earned run average of 0.58, a new ACC record.

Howie Darc, Maryland outfielder who tied Wake Forest's John Stokoe for third in batting with a .357 average, pitcher Dickie Smallwood of Duke (.6-5) and Bonczek also figures in new or matched records during the 1957 season.

Darc led the conference in stolen bases with 31, a record. Smallwood led in strikeouts with 93, also a new league standard. Bonczek's 10 doubles, best in the ACC, tied the conference record.

Hermanettes' Streak Ends, Williamsport Sweeps Pair

The winning streak of the Old German Hermanettes ended abruptly at two yesterday as Williamsport swept a twin bill from the Oh Gee Gals on the latter's diamond.

The twin setback shoved the locals' record to .500 for six games. The Hermanettes will make their first home appearance this Sunday at Penn Avenue Field in a doubleheader against the Lebanon (Pa.) Cedarettes. The first contest is set for 2 p. m.

Snook Wins Both

Ella Snook, 40-year-old hurler, pitched both triumphs yesterday, trimming the Hermanettes, 3-1, in the opener and taking the 14-2 nightcap.

A three-run fourth took the opener after the locals had started the scoring with a run in the top of the frame. Jeanne Hale's single, a pair of errors and Dot Heaven's bounce to first accounted for the tally. Williamsport got its three on a walk, error and pair of hits.

First-sacker Nellie Smith drove in a pair of runs with a single to left while Snook's one-bagger shoved over Smith with the third marker.

Six Miscues In Second

The locals blew up in the second clash, committing six errors. Williamsport scored in the first five innings, chasing across five in both the fourth and fifth frames. Stouffer was the big gun for the winners with a triple and three singles while scoring three runs and knocking in four.

Hale had a pair of singles in the opener while Annabelle Leath, Herman and Bowers had two each in the nightcap. Bowers was the loser in both games for the Hermanettes, being pressed into duty in the nightcap when Pat Thompson was unable to take the hill.

Cumberland riders didn't win any events but finished in the money yesterday in the motorcycle hill climb near Damascus, Montgomery County. The event was staged by the Heart of Maryland Motorcycle Club.

Howard Mizell, veteran rider of York, Pa., and his son, Gordon, won three of the four events.

Howard Mizell won the first pro climb in 3.51 seconds followed by Joseph W. Hemmis, Cumberland (3.77); Andy Baycurea Pittsburgh (4.28) and Jackie Neiland, Cleveland (4.30).

The second test was won by Jackie Neiland in 3.38 seconds best time of the day. Howard Mizell was second in 3.43, Duane Neiland, Cleveland, third (3.55) and Joseph W. Hemmis, Cumberland, 4th in 3.84.

AKRON, O. (INS) — Arnold Palmer of Latrobe, Pa., dropped a 25-foot chip shot on the sixth extra hole of a sudden-death playoff to edge Doug Ford of Mahopac, N. Y., for the Akron Open golf title yesterday.

The pair was deadlocked at 272 after the regular 72 holes and matched each other for five greens before Palmer made his brilliant shot.

Palmer won $2,800 and Ford received $1,900.

In third place was Don Finsterwald, 275, who pocketed $1,400. Bill Trombley's 277 earned him $1,200, and four others, Tommy Bolt, Art Wall Jr., Marly Furgol, and Dick Mayer who tied at 278 each received $900.

Two Boys Repeat On All-State Club

CHARLESTON, W. Va. (AP) — Huntington Vinson catcher Tom Perdue and first baseman Steve Everhart of Martinsburg were the only repeaters on the 1957 All-West Virginia High School Baseball Team selected by the State Sportswriters Assn.

Gene Adkins, East Bank second baseman, was the lone member of the state championship Pirates to be selected to the first team.

Property In Bedford County Appraised At $87.5 Million

BEDFORD — The Bedford County Board of Commissioners has announced an appraisal valuation of $87.5 million for property in the county.

The figure, result of long study by commissioners, tax appraisers and other advisers, is approximately $17 to $20 million more than the present valuation figures on which property tax is based.

Last year, the State Tax Equalization Board valued property in the county to $63 million. New figures, to be released about the middle of July by the state group, are expected to be near $70 million.

Bedford County commissioners set the tax assessment rate at 25 per cent of the appraised valuation.

Elmer Foor Sr., president of the board, said:

"This percentage will give us about the same amount of tax we have been receiving. The slight increase in assessed valuation, from $18 million last year to about $22 million under the new program, will return the same tax plus about $20,000 annually we need to underwrite the cost of the tax equalization program."

The equalization program is expected to cost about $150,000. Commissioners will float a bond, issue in the debt-free county to cover that cost. The cost itself will be wiped off the books in ten years, according to present plans.

F. Jay Teeter and C. Blair Winter, members of the board, joined with Foor in expressing satisfaction with the program of tax equalization.

It was pointed out that few appeals from assessments are expected.

Foor said:

"Everyone now knows that he is paying his fair share in the cost of government. All property assessments now are based on an equal estimate instead of the formerly haphazard system in use here."

Tax notices setting forth the appraised and assessed valuations have been mailed in some districts. While some taxpayers have come to the courthouse "with fire in their eye," none has declared an intention to appeal. It was said the taxpayers, jolted in some cases by increased assessments, have calmed down when they had the equalization program explained.

The commissioners stated: "We look for the tax equalization program to be a success. We believe the general public is in sympathy with the program and that they understand that each person now is paying his fair share of governmental costs."

First revenues from the new program are expected to be received in the spring of 1958.

Chief Truly Asks Driving Caution During Summer

FROSTBURG — Chief of Police Lloyd Truly has issued a warning to motorists to drive carefully now that schools are out for the summer months.

Hundreds of youngsters are now on the streets, Chief Truly stated, making it necessary for motorists to drive with utmost caution at all times.

This is the most dangerous time of the year, according to Chief Truly, who said the youngsters are free to romp and play all day for the first time in months, and do not realize the danger they incur in running across the street.

"It is much better to drive cautiously," he continued, "than to injure some child. When you see children playing near the highway, or riding bicycles or scooters, slow down so that regardless of what unexpected move they may make, you will still be in control of the situation."

Police Plan Drive Against Fast Drivers

FREDERICK (AP)—State Police Supt. Elmer F. Munshower says nine new police cars equipped with radar are now patrolling Maryland's roads—particularly the dual-lane expressways, where the speed limit recently was increased from 55 to 60 miles per hour.

Col. Munshower emphasized, however, that increased use of the radar equipment is only coincidental with the new speed limit because the cars were being readied previously.

The State Police will try to have at least one radar car at the disposal of each barracks at all times, he said last night, but will not hesitate to use as many as four or five in one area.

Col. Munshower said no special effort is being made to pick up speeders on the expressways. But he added that the new speed limit—which became effective June 1—would be strictly enforced with the aid of the radar cars.

The new speed limit signs were being installed over the weekend in the Frederick area on U. S. 40 from here to Pine Orchard, 15 miles west of Baltimore, and on U. S. 240 between here and Rockville, Montgomery County.

False Teeth That Loosen Need Not Embarrass

Many wearers of false teeth have suffered real embarrassment because their plates dropped, slipped or wobbled at just the wrong time. Do not live in fear of this happening to you. Just sprinkle a little FASTEREETH, the alkaline (non-acid) powder, on your plates. Hold false teeth more firmly, so they feel more comfortable. Does not sour. Checks "plate odor" (denture breath). Get FASTEREETH at any drug counter.

Battle Rages Over Granting Liquor Permit

LA PLATA, Md. (AP)—Two of Charles County's three commissioners have added new fuel to the fire over the county's expressed intention of granting a liquor license to a proposed floating casino.

When the Southern Maryland county recently approved a license application for use of Freestone Point, Va., Gov. McKeldin stated his objections in no uncertain terms.

Over the weekend, a letter answering McKeldin was made public by John L. Sullivan, president of the Charles County commissioners. He said the letter was decided upon by himself and the other Democratic commissioner, W. Edward Berry, at a meeting last Thursday. Republican commissioner Lemuel Wilmer was not present.

"Obviously, you had not checked the law," they wrote the governor, "because there is no discretionary power granted here (Mrs. Mary Gardiner) as license clerk, nor can the county commissioners refuse such licenses."

"We cannot help but feel that it is an attempt by you to resort to petty politics to whitewash your past actions on these matters and put on a new coat of shining armor with which to wage the battle of seeking another political office."

Local Police Nab 20 Over Weekend

"Three cheers for the Red, White and Blue." When we sing these stirring words at home, at school, as a parade passes, or whatever the occasion, let's pay more than merely lip service to the Grand Old Flag! Poems have been written for Old Glory. Statuesmen have eulogized its immortality. Soldiers on battlefields throughout the world have died for it. It flies majestically night and day over the White House. It is the blessed Flag of Freedom and stands for all the things we hold dearest. Honor the Flag that is the signature of our country and fly it proudly in your heart!

Cadillac

Greatness Is Never Achieved Suddenly!

It has long been true, in the affairs of men, that only time can confirm the gift of greatness.

Artist, statesman, writer, craftsman—each must await the years for the maturity of his talent and for the verdict of his judges.

And as it is in the affairs of men, so it is in the world of commerce. Nothing great was ever created suddenly—whether the product be that of an individual or of an organization.

Here, most certainly, is the very genesis of the unique position which Cadillac currently occupies in the hearts and minds of the world's motorists.

Since the first Cadillac car made its appearance more than fifty-five years ago, it has always been created to a single objective: to make it as fine a motor car as it is possible to produce.

And, without question, the mission and the accomplishment have been one and the same.

The goodness of Cadillac has, in fact, been so apparent over that lengthy span that the Cadillac name stands today as an accepted synonym for quality wherever highways exist.

The pretenders have come—and they have gone. For time is an exacting taskmaster—and only the principles that have created the great Cadillac car and only the devotion that has given it being have been equal to the challenge.

Never has this fact been more deeply etched in the public consciousness than it is during the present automotive year.

If you have yet to take the wheel of a 1957 Cadillac, you should hesitate no longer to visit your authorized Cadillac dealer.

Waiting for you in his showroom is proof beyond doubt that Cadillac is—in fact as in reputation—the Standard of the World!
